

Author Guidelines and Information

- We want to hear your story, but please make sure it has a Tulare County history connection.
- Although we do not pay for submitted and publishing stories, we do provide authors of the publication 5 free copies of the issue in which their story appears.
- We love photographs and so do our readers! Email copies or hard copies are acceptable. Please provide a caption. Authors submitting photographs should receive appropriate permission for use from the owner.
- Stories should not be over 1,500 words (give or take), but short articles are welcome as well. We appreciate individual writing styles, but we reserve the right to edit where we feel it is appropriate. We will make every effort to consult with the author when doing so.
- We publish only original material and try not to use works that have already been published in another publication. There are exceptions, so please contact us so we can discuss.
- As we are a quarterly publication, deadline dates for each issue are as follows: February 1st, May 1st, August 1st and November 1st. We try our best to publish your article as close to the submission date as possible, but it could be delayed to an upcoming issue.
- Be aware that Los Tulares is not copyrighted, and even though your submitted material will be identified as authored by you, others can use it without permission from TCHS. However, we do ask that if someone uses the material (you included), they mention the source.
- Los Tulares has been published since 1948 and some articles from previous issues might be relevant for re-publishing, but we do not make a practice of re-publishing what has already appeared in a previous Los Tulares issue.